Presentation By:

Chandra Hatfield

Peck Rubanoff & Hatfield PC

Chandra's career has been focused on the exclusive representation of public and private employers of all sizes in labor and employment matters. Chandra enjoys working together with clients to find a range of practical solutions that fit their unique needs.

She frequently counsels employers on complex medical leave and reasonable accommodation compliance matters; managing employee performance and discipline; wage and hour compliance; workplace harassment and discrimination; developing and updating workplace policies and handbooks; and other employment issues as they arise.

We hope you will join us for this informative seminar. You will learn a wealth of information in regard to updated Washington State laws:

Employee Leave
Worker's Compensation
Pregnancy
Disability
Family Care Act
Military Spouse Leave
Domestic Violence Leave
